Three Groups of War Veterans Enrolled for Vocational Agricultural Study

In September 1947 the Randall County School Board consisting of E. R. Cleavinger, Charles Beckman, J. D. Barker, H. C. Bryan, Marion Bruce and the late Judge A. H. Hunt cooperating with the Randall County Commissioners Court contracted with the State Board for Vocational Education to inaugurate Randall County Veterans Vocational School. Ted T. Kelley a graduate of Oklahoma Panhandle A&M and previously employed by the Knox County Veteran Vocational School was employed as instructor-coordinator.

All of the veterans enrolled in agriculture classes with the Randall County Vocational Schools are required to have a farm large enough to furnish a living for his family during normal times. After his enrollment has been completed each veteran receives forty-two hours per month of group instruction consisting of theory and demonstrations related to actual farm problems.

Scope of Instruction

In classes the veteran is taught subjects set forth by the State Board of Vocational Education consisting of Farm Management, Animal Husbandry, Poultry, Dairying, Farm Shop, Home Garden and Orchard, local farm crops, soil management, and other subjects related to the veterans farm.

Large group demonstrations are held as field days to acquaint the veteran with improved practices in various fields of agriculture.

Farm Shop demonstration gives the veteran a working knowledge of the tools in the shop. Some of the most popular subjects have been acetylene and electric welding, pipe cutting and threading, blacksmithing technique, and testing and setting up farm levels. The aim of the school is to give the veteran basic skills in the use of tools found in average farm shops and not to develop specialists in welding, blacksmithing, mechanics, or other trades.

Group Meetings Held

In addition to the large group and class meetings each veteran meets a small group once each month. These small groups are made up of groups of five veterans who are neighbors, and spend one half day to aid one another in improving farms, working cattle or completing tough jobs. These groups rotate so that each veteran has the group on his farm once every five months.

The instructor aids individual veterans on jobs such as planning and management for one year in advance, running contour lines, setting up irrigation systems, land appraisal, and soil analysis and fertilization.

By meeting the above requirements and putting into operation approved practices on his individual farm the veteran qualifies for subsistence payments under the G. I. Bill of Rights. These subsistence payments plus tuition paid the Randall County Vocational School totals approximately $90,000.00 each year, most of which is in turn spent in Canyon and Randall County.

Work Started in 1947

The original class started in September 1947 with seventeen veterans who meet in the Agriculture Department of the Canyon High School. This class is now located in their own building, a reconverted army barracks west of the High School. The class now has an enrollment of twenty-three which has organized with Bill Wilson, president; Charles Gerald, secretary; and Wayne Porter, treasurer.

The Wayside Class was started February 10, 1948 with Louis G. Hinders a graduate of West Texas State College as instructor. The first meeting place for this class was the Fairview school building, after a few months this class was moved to Wayside school where it was more centrally located. Due to the fact that it was located so far from the Canyon shop facilities it was decided by the class to start their own shop by purchasing shares and by holding a pie supper. Leroy Thomas, M. I. McGehee, and Curtis Lathem were elected as directors for the shop organization. Permission was received from Wayside trustees, Eddie Maueller, Curtis McGehee and Mr. Scribe to set up the shop in the old Wayside school house.

Umbarger Classes Started

In June of 1948 the Umbarger class was started with O. J. Bales, graduate of West Texas State College, as instructor. This class first met in the Umbarger High School and now meets in the auditorium of the Umbarger School which was provided by the Umbarger Board of Trustees Raymond Batenhorst, Conrad Westhoff and John Bedenk. The group is organized and has regularly elected officers. The president is Leonard Batenhorst and the secretary-treasurer is A. R. Friemel.

To meet the requirements of field days such full day meetings as visits to Amarillo Experiment Station, Swisher County Soil Conservation and irrigation conference, and Triplett-Pringle feed lots at Bovina are provided at regular intervals.

Valuable Shop Equipment

Farm Shop is an important phase of the Vocational program and requires much of the veterans time. Teaching equipment and shop facilities valued at approximately $4,100 is now available for the use of veterans enrolled in both Canyon and Umbarger classes. Some of the out-

Memorial services for Lt. H. B. Hales, Jr., who was killed in a plane crash, October 14, 1944, at Maui, Hawaii, were held Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the BlackburnShaw Memorial Chapel in Amarillo.

He won his commission in the spring of 1943 and was assigned as an instructor in the Navy Air Force, serving in Fields and in the States until less than a month before he was killed. Prior to entering college he was connected with his father in his well-known dairy and show cattle business.

Sisters are Jane Hales, student at Texas Technological College, Lubbock, Martha and Ruby Hales, students in Canyon High School, and Mrs. Verne Gordon of Amarillo.

Hot Checkers in Canyon Monday Get Away With $27

A man and woman gave another hot check in Canyon Monday evening, getting away with $7 worth of fancy work and $20 in cash in exchange for a worthless $27 check.

Mrs. Newt Hileman was the victim of the hot checkers. The man and woman came to her place of business, "bought" items which pleased them to the amount of $7 and gave in "payment" a hot check for $27. They got away with $20 cash in addition to the amount of their purchace.

Recently two men came to Canyon and cashed two hot checks for $45 each, but left no forwarding address.

Citizens are warned again never, never, never cash checks on persons who they do not know and given by persons whom they do not know.

Chandler Lucky In Drawing at Watchmaker Meet

C. B. Chandler was lucky when he drew an attachment for his watchmaker's lathe in Amarillo Saturday night when he attended a meeting of watchmakers in Amarillo Hotel.

About 75 watchmakers from this area met to organize a Panhandle Watchmakers Guild. Twenty-eight of those present joined the organization and complete organization plans.

Material companies from Dallas, Oklahoma City and Kansas City were present with displays of their wares and each contributed prizes for the drawings made during the evening.

Mr. Chandlre's attachment prize will regulate the speed of his lathe. This attachment was the grand prize for the evening.

Two Boys Taken With Plenty of Stolen Goods

R. D. (Bob) Melendy, 21, and Gene Howell, 17, were arrested Friday by Sheriff M. E. Cantrell following a theft of approximately $5,000 of materials and supplies from the Tradewind Airport, south of Amarillo in Randall county.

Melendy was arrested near Clovis where he was working. He was showing a group of men part of the loot of his raid when officers drove up for the arrest. He was originally from Pampa, and is held in jail awaiting action of the grand jury in Randall county.

Melendy had hidden part of the loot in a room in Pampa which he had been occupying. Uncovered in his arrest was the theft of two cars. One was a Kaiser which had been stolen in 1947 in Amarillo and was the property of Edwin J. Larson of Canyon. The car was new when Melendy stole it, but was in pretty bad condition when taken by the officers.

Howell is a high school boy in Pampa.

Sheriff Cantrell was highly pleased at the fast breaking evidence which made it possible for him to promptly locate the loot and arrest the criminals.

Water Situation Is Found to Be Acute In New Mex. Towns

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Coleman and daughter, Liston, have returned from a trip through New Mexico and El Paso where Mr. Coleman met old friends whom he had not seen in several years.

At Cloudcraft they found business houses using fuel oil because it was cheaper than the labor in cutting stove wood.

At Hope, they found agriculture a thing of the past for the past two years. The Penicasco River was going dry; all of the beautiful apple orchards are dead.

More than two-thirds of the oil wells in south eastern New Mexico are now on the pump owing to the lack of gas pressure.

School Census Will End at the Close of March

Unless a number of children of scholastic age are found in the Canyon Independent School District before March 31, there will be a shortage in the scholastic population.

Lee Foster states that there are more young folks who leave the scholastic rolls this year than there are pupils who become 6 years of age. The birth rate was low during the war period, and he has located all but one of the registered births for the district during that period of time.

The school district will stand a loss of $55 on every scholastic who is missed from the rolls.

All citizens who know that children have been missed are urged to report these children to Mr. Foster at the collector's office in the court house.

Cars Must Have 1949 Plates By Midnite April 1

The deadline for 1949 car plates is rapidly approaching!

All vehicles which use the highways must be equipped with the 1949 plates on or before midnight of April 1.

While the sale of plates has picked up to a considerable degree during the past week, there are still many car owners who have not equipped their cars for the new plates. Friday night, April 1, is the final date.

Following the threat against car owners in the north part of the county last year, no Potter county citizens are buying their plates in Randall county because of convenience, but some of those who live in South Amarillo are known to have bought their plates in Potter county, thus depriving Randall county of the needed road funds.

America Is Doing a Poor Job of Selling Democracy

We heard with a great deal of interest the other night a speaker who knew more about communism and the Iron Curtain than most folks profess to know.

"The Russians are doing a much better job of selling Communism than we are in selling Democracy," declared the speaker.

Democracy is something so intangible. To the man with the empty "belly" the right to work, the right to vote, the freedoms which we possess, and all of the other Democracies claim—all of these are not comprehended. The promise of a home in which to live, regardless of the fact that it may be a mere hovel, means more than ownership of a home to the man who has never known more than a hovel.

The right to work as you please means little to the fellow who has been bossed and shoved around all of his life. The commies feed him on the union rules, and the unfortunate attitude of some employers in America.

The right to vote is nothing, when this man considers that 50% of those who live in this "Land of the free, and home of the brave" never go to the polls.

The Commies know all of the defects of Democracy. They know how to lie about the Democratic way of life, and to distort the meaning of the American way of life.

They point out every defect that is so evident in our way of life.

When the President loses control of Congress; when John L. Lewis thumbs his nose at the President; when men lie about their incomes and evade the income taxes; when 24 persons are hauled into court in one night in Randall county for traffic violations; when gambling runs wild; when professed Christians gamble and drink and refuse to go to church; when most Americans think it is smart to evade the laws of the land; yes, the commies are listening to the defects of Democracy, and are relaying these defects to those whom they seek to fool.

As the speaker stated so forcefully, we are making a joke of the great privileges which we enjoy in this great nation.

Oil Is Greatest Need of This Modern Civilization

If you want to get the low down on the feelings of people regarding the big oil companies, just talk privately to any person who has no oil interests, and has little or no chance of getting oil interests. In 9 chances out of 10 he will abuse the oil companies, and declare that he has no time for them.

Yet, we must all realize that if it were not for oil and the big companies which produce oil, this nation would go back to the horse and buggy days. Our present national economy depends upon oil. While the big companies may be ruthless in looking after their own interests, they are not half so ruthless as Mr. and Mrs. Average American would be if turned loose as wildcat producers.

Orderly production of oil was brought about by all of the big companies.

One of Our "Big Men"

Americans are afraid of "big men" in high places. They are afraid of men who have become great, fearing that they became great by taking advantage of the "little folks."

Lawrence Hagy is an example. When he was elected mayor of Amarillo two years ago, the people refused to give that city ample financial support.

They were afraid of Hagy. Because he had made a great record with his own affairs, they feared he would be extravagant with the city's money. As a result of the people having turned down adequate financial support, Hagy refused to accept another term.

The city was run on the money available, but a lot of improvements have not been made which should have been made. During his administration Hagy has done much traveling for the benefit of the city. But he paid his own expenses on every trip. He gets a "salary" of $10 per week, but has turned every cent over to charity.

Since he has refused to run again, and since the people realize what a record he has made, bouquets are flying in the direction of the Mayor. Before he made his decision, there were many brickbats. How foolish we become in governmental affairs at times.

Chr'st Stronger Than Man

Stronger men than Stalin have attempted to destroy Christianity. Thousands of men have died for the cause of Christ. More thousands will die if needs be.

The fact that Stalin is trying to destroy Christianity is his greatest weakness. Unfortunately he is dealing with people who know little of the influence of Christ, and care less. They are hungry people, fighting for a loaf of bread, rather than spiritual life.

The greatest curse that Stalin holds up to his enslaved people is the fact that while Americans take advantage of the opportunities and teachings of Christ not 50% of the people of our nation are members of any church and make of our Sunday a Roman holiday.

Those who think that America has no great men in public places are greatly mistaken. We have plenty of men in public places who are thoroughly capable of handling present complex questions. The difficulty is that we have weaklings in key spots who are making a mess of things, and to whom the public looks as a reflection upon the whole of our government. We must have more confidence in our government, if our government is to live and survive.

The Canyon News has used this page during the past month to carry a message to Panhandle publishers. We have been talking about the 40th Annual Convention to be held on April 8-9. In view of the fact that a 28-page issue of the Panhandle Publisher has been mailed to all members this week, guess the message of that issue should be sufficient for this week.

Cussing the government is a dangerous practice when you realize that commies have planted key men, supposedly good Americans, around to gather up your gripes and make good use of them. These fellows are no fools when it comes to using unsuspecting Americans.

The oft-predicated buyers' strike will occur, according to observers, when the people run out of money.

Advertising in The Canyon News is profitable to those who have something useful to sell at a fair price.

We Pay For Many Conveniences Which We Never Use

Citizens of any community are prone to complain if everything done in and by the community is not in direct accord with their wishes and for their own benefit.

We have lived in Canyon for 38½ years, and never collected a cent on the fire insurance; we have never had occasion to call upon the peace officers for protection; we seldom patronize the public library; we do not use the farm-to-market roads; we seldom get off the main highways to use any public roads; we do not hunt or fish; we have taken advantage of the school system little thus far; yet we have been taxed and have paid our taxes cheerfully throughout the years for all of these advantages which our government offers us.

It is our own fault that we have not taken advantage of them.

We would be ashamed of ourselves to oppose the support and maintenance of any of these functions. They all go to make a well rounded society; one in which we may all be proud to be a part.

Yet we have minorities who object to the various functions of government which they cannot personally use or profit by.

It takes all of these functions to build a community which will be attractive to persons seeking a home.

New Functions of State Are Financed at Expense Old Ones

The legislature of Texas is getting in position to make a mess of the appropriations of the State. Instead of passing the appropriations for existing institutions, it is passing huge appropriations for new functions of government. A new four-year college is being sponsored for east Texas; two branches of the medical college of the University of Texas are being pushed, in spite of the fact that Texas now has 16 major educational institutions, and about 50 junior colleges.

As usual, the legislature passed the Judiciary Appropriations bill, since a majority of the legislature are either lawyers, or are studying to be lawyers.

The real fight comes when money bills are proposed to take care of the regular functions of government.

The Comptroller says that state's revenues have declined $22,000,000 this year. It would seem that the legislature would be more interested in taking care of existing institutions than in taking on new departments of government.

Minorities and Pressure Groups Are Too Powerful

The rule of minorities is the popular thing in America. There are 680 lobbies maintained in Washington by the various pressure groups who want to push through favorable legislation which will benefit their own particular group.

These pressure groups are seeking to control at the expense of other minorities. When convenient, they throw in together, for the purpose of taking advantage of the minority.

It is a wonder, a very, very great wonder that Democracy has succeeded so well with all of the handicaps which have been thrown in its path.

Atomic Power Known By Many

We are advised not to put too much faith in the atomic bomb.

It is a well known fact that scientists throughout the world had been working for years upon the development of atomic power.

They knew that it existed, but had to devise a means of harnessing it.

The bomb is a by-product of atomic power. Destruction of the bomb cannot be harnessed, or controlled. Effects of the bombs dropped in Japan were felt in Ohio.

It is pointed out that Russian scientists, joined by German scientists who are now working behind the Iron Curtain, certainly have the "know how" of the atomic bomb, and may have a supply of them. The only answer to adequate defense is a well balanced air corps, navy and army.

Red Herring of the President

We still wonder if President Truman looks upon the commies within the government as "red herring" play for the un-American committee?

If Truman still has this idea, he is playing into the hands of the Russians, who have been smart enough to work through native commies in the lands they wish to take over. They have sense enough to know that they could not import commies from Russia to openly defy America. They work through the fools who are in this nation, but are sold on the commie ideals.

We are now told that after the development of the atomic bomb, all military men voted against its use against Japan. That unfortunate nation had offered to surrender upon various occasions. But President Truman alone stood out for use of the bomb, and directed that it be dropped long after the military leaders knew that Japan was thoroughly whipped. Another case of slaughtering the defenseless.

There is one cheerful thought in this mess of world affairs: Neither America nor Russia has ever started a war of aggression. Both have been peaceful nations until some one got in their hair. The great difference is that whereas in the United States it takes an act of Congress, composed of more than 600 Senators and Representatives, to declare war, in Russia a dozen men decide what policy to adopt.

The President has threatened to stump the country for his program. Maybe when he gets out among the people—if he reaches the ear of the people—he will find that not all the people are for his civil rights program. Minorities know how to put on the pressure.

The President should have learned that the days have passed when the White House can successfully drive Congress. Now days the lawmakers must be convinced before they are willing to act.

Almost anybody can tell you why somebody else ought to work for the benefit of the community.

The reason many enterprises fail to go forward is that it is much easier to plan to do than to do.

No true religion rests upon the assumption that everybody else is wrong and they alone are right.

Farm prosperity is essential to national prosperity, and, at times, to having something on the table to eat.

On Saturday night, March 26th, 9 p. m. to 10 p. m., there will be broadcast one of the greatest single programs in the history of radio. Called "One Great Hour," it will be heard over every one of the 1092 stations of the 4 major networks plus hundreds of other stations.

The program aims to present through drama and music the need of war-stricken peoples in the world today, and will dramatize the work the church has been doing to rehabilitate physically and spiritually these people. The script for the broadcast has been written by Erik Barnouw, president of the Radio Writer's Guild, under the direction of playwright and author Robert Sherwood.

Have I got a hole in my pocket -or somewhere?

My friend Norm makes $6000 a year.
I make $6000 a year.

Norm has a wife and 3 kids.
We have one kid.

Norm owns a $12,000 home.
What do we own? A lease to an apartment.

Norm has a summer cabin up in the mountains.
We spend the summer up in apartment 6C.

Norm has a nice little nest egg saved up.
We've scarcely got a nest. (No eggs.)
Have I got a hole in my pocket?
Am I dumb? What is wrong?

ANSWER: Suppose we just answer the last question, friend. Your trouble is that you've forgotten about automatic savings—on the Payroll Savings Plan.

Norm's on it. Buys U. S. Savings Bonds automatically. It's the smart way to save because it's the sure way.

Not on a payroll? Then you can get on the Bond-A-Month Plan—at your bank. Either way, $3 gets you $4. And you get the things you want—instead of empty wishes. How about it?

BOYCE HOUSE "Gives You Texas"

A book store owner in a Texas city was relating an experience he had had with a publishing house representative. The latter had insisted that the dealer wasn't ordering enough copies of a book, whereupon the dealer exclaimed:

"That's the way with you fellows from up North—always trying to tell us Texans how to run our business."

I asked the dealer, "Where did you come from originally?"

"Wisconsin."

"How long have you been down here?"

"Two years—but I'm a Texan now!"

Phrases without which nobody could run for office:

"Economy and efficiency."
"Clean as a hound's tooth."
"Point with pride."
"View with alarm."
"Born on a farm."
"Poor but honest parents."
"Wage a clean campaign, free of personalities."
"A business administration."
"Bravest men and most beautiful women."
"Less government in business."
"Public office is a public trust."

It was Twain who declared, "Hunger is the handmaid of genius."

MANN'S malted milk BREAD

Housing for your telephone voice is scarce, too

Like new houses, telephone cable is not yet plentiful. It takes telephone cable to "house" your telephone voice as it travels.

Perhaps telephone poles near your house carry a telephone cable (the thick, lead-covered carrier for a bundle of wires strung from pole to pole). Why can't we connect a telephone for you to this cable?

Ordinarily we could. But today most of these cables have no idle wires in them.

So new telephones take new cable.

That new cable is being made as you read these words. It is spinning out of telephone factories twice as fast as prewar. It is hurried to wherever we need it. There we hustle it into place—at the rate of a million miles of wire in cable this year alone.

Compared with normal production, telephone cable isn't scarce—it's abundant. But when 50,000 more people order telephones every month in the Southwest—as they do—even yesterday's abundance is today's shortage.

We're closing the gap, however, and we owe a lot to your patience and trust that we'll get the job done. For we're just as anxious to get you a telephone as you are to get one.

Vocational Aggies

standing projects completed in Farm Shop by Canyon Class are: fertilizer distributor by Charles Gerald; cattle feed bunks, by Frank Zimmerer; strawberry pyramid, by Roy Byrd, Jr.; rebuilt trailer chassis by C. L. Roberts; welding jig by Wilbur and Melvin Leavitt; brooder house by Wayne Porter; self feeding panels for feed stack by John Dietz; wooden gates and chicken feeders by Paul Fluegal, Jr.; trailer hitches by Jo Carroll Dutton and Roy N. Byrd, Jr.; home bookshelf by Kenneth Tomlinson; window screens by Hamil Wilson and Quentin Archer; milk can rack by C. H. Patke; building doors and corral gates, Erwin Meyer; other outstanding projects have been completed by Joe Gill, Edgar Robinson, Weldon Hager and Curtis Fox.

Veterans Enrolled at Wayside

Since the Vocational Shop is the only repair facility in the Wayside community it is considered as a vital community project. Veterans who have had outstanding programs in the Wayside shop are: Raymond Heim and Curtis Lathem, tractor repair; Vernon Roper, trailer hitch; Everett Gouge, cattle sprayer; Foy Moudy, sideboards for pickup; H. T. Duke, general farm repair; Bill Heilser, Charles Kennedy, "A" frame for hoist.

The Umbarger class uses the shop facilities located at Canyon and have contributed much time and energy to its development. Some of the outstanding projects completed in shop by the Umbarger class include: a two wheel trailer, built by John Grabber; a portable electric welder carriage, Jack Higgins; air compressors, Leonard Batenhorst and Ray Stewart; cattle feed bunks, John Wieck and Alvin Friemel; rebuilding a feed grinder, Ray Gerber; and building window frames, Leo Artho and Carl Hartman. Other projects such as reclaiming tools, minor equipment repairs and woodwork projects have been completed by Gayle Higgins, Byron Campbell, Elroy Artho, Harvey Artho, A. R. Friemel, Francis Friemel, A. R. Stork, John Irlbeck and Elmer Hartman.

Projects Are Varied

Small group cooperation has resulted in a brooder house for Wayne Porter; corral for Joe Gill; cattle chute for Roy Byrd, Jr.; plumbing fixtures for Bill Heisler; house moving for Willie Modisette; chicken house for Harvey Artho; and working and spraying hogs and cattle for John Wieck.

In interviewing the veterans enrolled in the school these representative statements were made: Charles Kennedy, a disabled veteran of the Wayside class commented: "The Veterans Training Program in Agriculture is a very fine way of helping me to gain knowledge of new developments in agriculture that I can apply to my own farm. Because of the shop which is located at Wayside I can do much of my farm maintenance which normally I would either take to the nearest shop which is about twenty miles from home or let the job go neglected.

Pleased With Work

"By keeping accurate records required by the school I have been able to plan my farming operations on a more sound basis.

"In addition to the knowledge I have gained the subsistence received while in training has enabled me to reach a better financial position and come closer to rehabilitation."

Roy N. Byrd, Jr., member of the Canyon Class and farming in the Jowell community makes this statement: "The Randall County Vocational School has certain immediate and certain far-reaching results. For immediate results I would list the economic aspects, to several of us this offers a definite way of farmstead improvements. To the county as a whole this offers added prosperity in the sum of $90,000.00 which is annually released in Randall County. In the future, the school will have a decided influence. We, the younger farmers, stockmen, and dairymen, are here making friendships all over the county, friendships that are being cemented as we work together in our various projects. The influence of the school is surely to improve the general agricultural effort in Randall County as the latest proved and practical methods are taught, discussed, and put into practice."

Heart of Your Gas Service

West Texas Gas Company's McSpadden Compressor Station, near Canyon, Texas, is one of the stations employed to maintain movement of natural gas to South Plains cities.

Compressors and Maintenance Cost More... But Your Gas Rates Are at Pre-War Prices!

Construction of McSpadden Compressor Station began in 1943. Three compressor engines, two 165-horsepower and one 80-horsepower, were installed. Larger compressors were preferred at that time but were not available due to governmental restrictions during the war years.

Since 1943 West Texas Gas Company has installed six 400-horsepower compressors and made other improvements to increase the capacity of this station to 2,850-horsepower, almost seven times that of the original plant.

In 1948 West Texas Gas Company paid over 92 per cent more for 400-horsepower compressors than it paid for the same type engines purchased in 1940.

Despite increased costs of compressors, steel pipe, wages, valves and other items... natural gas service for your home and business is still furnished you at 1940 prices!

Stock market analysts with a bullish outlook anticipate a market rise before the end of April, but think stock prices will not go above the top of the last two years. Bears foresee the Dow-Jones averages going a little below the 160-163 level later in the year, but without precipitating any sell-off serious enough to unsettle quality stocks. Many brokers, traders and professional analysts are well agreed on this: No real bull market will set in until (1) a further substantial downward readjustment of commodity prices and business activity has taken place and (2) peace prospects have improved materially.

Guards Issue Second Rifle Firing Caution

In order to comply with military requests a second warning to the public is being printed in this paper for the National Guard units of Canyon and Amarillo.

During the week end of April 2nd and 3rd, and continuing each week end thereafter through April and May the companies of the National Guard stationed in Canyon and Amarillo will participate in record firing of the .30 calibre M-1 rifle.

Each man will fire a course of 150 rounds at a range of 200 yards.

During the time of firing there will be signs posted around the area and red streamers flying. The public is warned to stay clear of the area as long as the red streamers are up unless escorted by military personnel assigned to the units.

The firing range is located one mile east of the Amarillo hill on the north side of the road. This property belongs to the U. S. Government and no persons will be allowed in the area without the permission of Capt. Donald M. Olson.

Seasonal re-employment in 61 "job market areas" is expected to start in May, but the employment level will not hit last fall's peak, according to the Bureau of Employment Security, a Government agency. Recent evidences of continuing contraction: 500 workers laid off in New England by International Shoe Co., 340 by General Electric's plastic division, Meriden, Conn.; Hoosac Mills Corp. let 450 idle in its North Adams, Mass., plant and Revere Copper & Brass Co. cut its work week at Rome, N. Y. from six to four days pending new orders.

Studebaker has about doubled its share of the auto industry's total business since the war. Now producing at a weekly rate 15% above its 1948 average, it hopes to capture a still bigger share this year.

1925 BRIDGE CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. DAUGHERTY

Mrs. J. Madison Daugherty was hostess to members of the 1925 Bridge Club at her home on Wednesday afternoon, March 16.

Refreshments carrying out St. Patrick Day colors of filled angel food cake with coffee were served to Mrs. Al Keiselbach, Mrs. J. L. Duflot, Mrs. Clark Jarnagin, Mrs. Herschel Coffee, Mrs. Glenn Dowlen, Mrs. F. E. Savage, Mrs. Robert C. Busteed, Mrs. Claude Moore and the hostess.

WEST SIDE H. D. CLUB MEETS IN MRS. J. T. BROWN HOME

On Wednesday, March 16, the Westside Home Demonstration Club met in the home of Mrs. J. T. Brown at the City Lake with Mrs. Ray Metcalf presiding.

At the business meeting the club voted to serve home made pie and iced pop at the C. E. Head sale on Friday, March 25. "Texas, Our Texas" was adopted as the club song. Mrs. Ed Bourn, marketing chairman, announced that she had ordered 449 rose bushes and she was authorized to order a bolt of gold satin. The club voted in favor of postponing the County-Wide Exhibit from May until September.

Mrs. Herschel Jennings reviewed "Out on a Limb" by Louise Maxwell Baker. This is the hilarious story of the author who lost one of her legs at the age of eight.

A delicious refreshment plate was served by the hostess to the following members: Mrs. E. W. Bourn, Mrs. Joe Watson, Mrs. J. B. Hager, Mrs. B. A. Burrus, Mrs. Jennings, Mrs. Ed Bourn, Mrs. Metcalf, Mrs. R. A. Burrus, Mrs. Jim Carter and Mrs. J. D. Pruett.

FHA Boys Had Charge of Lions Club Thursday

The Future Farmers of America, under the supervision of Mr. Lloyd Devin, furnished the program for the weekly luncheon of the Canyon Lions' Club.

Donald Davis, Area Secretary and past president of the local chapter, and Jerry Inman, president, discussed the aims and purposes of the Future Farmers program and stated that they were more than pleased with the results of the recent show and sale in Canyon.

A group from the Junior Chapter of the FFA, composed of Marvin Cornette, Charles Donnell, Stanley Parker, Stanley Schaeffer, Earl Simon, Tom Wright, John Brandt, Donnie Stroup, Bill Thompson, Jimmy Montgomery and Don Hickman proceeded to demonstrate the parliamentary skill that brought them third place in the recent contest at Lubbock by holding a regular meeting of the chapter right then and there in the presence of the Lions' Club.

It was felt generally that these boys showed great adeptness and skill in parliamentary procedure and that they are to be commended for a very worthwhile achievement.

A final report was not available as to the results of the Birch the Magician show, but it appeared that the Lions' Club would net something over $150 for its charity fund.

WARREN'S

CHS Seniors Present "Almost Eighteen"

"Almost Eighteen," a three-act comedy by Dana Thomas, will be presented Friday, March 25, at 8 p. m. by the senior class of Canyon High School.

Don Hickman, as "Eddie," who believes himself another Bing Crosby, will lead the cast through rollicking and heartbreaking experiences to portray youth growing up.

Donald Davis will be Mr. William Barry who has his own ideas about how his son should be brought up, but who is always gently but firmly handled by his wife, Grace, Mable Ann Graham, who wants Eddie to do what he pleases and not be dominated by his father's "When I was a boy."

Gerald McDuff Plays Brother

Gerald McDuff portrays George Jones, Mrs. Barry's brother, who is very easy going and who spends more of his time traveling and enjoying life than concentrating on his cabinet making work. It is George who unintentionally places Eddie in his biggest dilemma of the night.

Suzanne Stephenson is Mabel Warren, an attractive woman in her early forties who seems hopelessly in love with George.

Beatrice Barry, Janey Forester, is the 21 year old sister of Eddie who believes him quite juvenile and is afraid for her own community standing when Eddie supposedly commits a family disgrace.

June Jennings plays Ann Sherman whose attractiveness and loyalty makes Eddie want to become "someone."

Mrs. Granville, Wanda Jean Edwards, is one of the town's wealthiest inhabitants and most active club women, which makes her domineering and immovable toward the problems of youth.

Fay Dickerson Stirs Trouble

Fay Dickerson as Sally Davidson manages to stir up trouble between Eddie and Ann without completing her plan to corral Eddies' affection.

Tommy Granville, Billy Cleavinger, is Mrs. Granville's son, who, although dominated by his mother, tries loyally to help Eddie out of his troubles when his opportune moment arrives.

Bryce Slack is Professor Merritt, who lives life from theory, but always tries to be kind and fair in all incidents.

Miss Dalrymple, Laura Davis, is a spinster who is insincere and although active in club work does nothing but "yes" those in superior positions.

"Almost Eighteen" is a delightful play and will be thoroughly enjoyable to the young people and adults alike. Hours of combined effort have been put forth by both the cast and directors and the result is expected to be an evening of wholesome entertainment.

The play will begin promptly at 8 o'clock, March 25. Tickets will be sold at the door for the benefit of people not obtaining their's from the cast or members of the senior class.

Tracksters Enter Panhandle Tourney

Canyon High tracksters will have a chance to show their stuff Saturday when they enter an invitational tournament at Panhandle.

It takes a lot of time and endurance for a runner to get in shape and plenty of courage to stay out for track, if you fail to place in a meet, but Canyon will have some boys that will do that very thing.

"Coach, I surely do need a haircut this afternoon," and "Mother told me to come home and work on the yard this evening, Coach." Those are just two of the very numerous excuses that are given to Coach Wheelock when someone has something other than track on his mind or dreads to go out and face the old March wind. But when a meet is in sight, excuses are forgotten and the boys are ready and raring to go.

Some of the teams entering the meet will be Shamrock, Dumas, Lefors, Dalhart, Memphis and Panhandle.

"Some of the boys are not in very good condition, but we hope to gain some experience by participating in the meet," says Coach R. D. Wheelock.

CONDUCT COUNTS

The chart on the bulletin board is made interesting by the cartoon, which proves a good point. It seems two girls were talking, one said, "I made good in everyone of my subjects except conduct, but then I'll never use that after I finish high school."

That is where you are wrong, if you think conduct doesn't count anything in school, it counts as much or more than any of your grades. So let's try to see how good our record will be at the end of our senior year, and try to make it even better.

Your conduct in school will help you immensely in your getting a job, or into some branch of service, after you have received your high school diploma. You should and will be proud of your record, when it is sent to you, and you are found with good qualifications.

You should be proud of your high school record and try to hold it up. Not trying to bring it down, but build on to it all of the time.

STOP! LOOK! LISTEN!

Students! Faculty members! And other personnel. There is a subject of grave importance which is facing us. Reckless driving, is what they call it. We hop into our car and take off without even looking about. Some drivers exceed the speed limit at all times. One could have a terrible crash.

The speed limit in town is twenty miles per hour, yet some of us go thirty and forty miles per hour. Some of these days a little boy or girl will run out in front of one and the driver will run over him. Then what a terrible state!

So the best thing to do is not to speed. Remember safer drivers make it safe for pedestrians and other drivers.

Last Edition Is Sent of Annual

Members of the annual staff are breathing more freely. The final section of "Soaring Wings," CHS yearbook, is to be sent in to the Steck Company, Thursday, March 24. This includes basketball, volleyball, track, the grade school sections and numerous other sections.

All pictures have been made by Pat Britain, and other equipment, along with members of the annual staff are ready to see the final section leave and complete annuals get back by the expected May 15.

TSTA Unit Hears Various Speaakers

Artistry is a rare trait possessed by some teachers and not capable of being transmitted to a great degree, is the opinion of Dr. Henry H. Hill, president of Peabody College for Teachers, Nashville, Tennessee. Dr. Hill spoke at the Unit Nine meeting of TSTA in Amarillo last Friday. He gave examples on having observed teachers' work that was so outstanding as to be classed as the highest kind of art.

Dr. Hill is rated as one of the unusual humorists who stands back of his assertions with statements such as, sure as death, taxes, and English peas at a hotel dinner. He also related the story of the young man who felt so unloved by people whom he wished as friends, that having read the B. O. ad, he bought a large dollar-size bottle of listerine and tried it, but found that no one liked him after that any more than they had before.

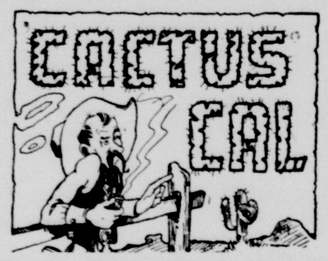

Joe C. Humphreys, president of Texas State Teachers Association gave a resume of the success thus far that the Gilmer-Aiken Bill has met in the legislature.

Mrs. Sarah C. Caldwell, national president of Classroom Teachers Organization brought greetings to the crowd and later addressed the organization at their luncheon. Dr. L. D. Haskew, dean of the College of Education, Texas University, spoke on "The Education America Needs."

After lunch, sectional meetings were held in the various rooms at Amarillo High School and near-by buildings.

The evening program consisted of numbers from the A Capnella Choir of Amarillo Senior High School with Mrs. Julia Dean Evans, directing; the introduction of the new officers; and an address by Dr. D. M. Wiggins, president of Texas Tech, Lubbock, Texas, on "Security versus Individualism."

Mrs. Larry Holman substituted for Mrs. Vearl Iverson last week.

Cut the chatter while I spin some yarns.

Merle Bullard and Bob Busteed, Gladys Thomas and Philip Busteed double dated Sunday night.

You should have seen Lorayne Carter's eyes light up when James Kile from Amarillo came to see her.

Mary Sue Foster and Lorayne Carter had a good time with some Price College boys Friday night.

Oh, James Thomas, why did you leave the Varsity Saturday night a minute after Peggy Bonds left?

Richmond Payne and Nelda Ruthardt were trying to enjoy the show at the Varsity but they had so many visitors it was difficult.

I heard that Mary Ann Sloan had a good time entertaining Jack Barnett at the Soph picnic.

Did you have a lot of fun with that Amarillo boy Saturday night, Lucille Simon?

Was that Barbara McDougal and Wayne Griffin I saw in the Olympic, Sunday? Well, well, an old flame has been renewed.

Who was it that told me Garland Butler was enjoying himself with a Dimmitt girl Saturday night?

Speaking of boys, who was Jimile Jennings with Saturday night?

Say, Goldie Currie, you're getting kinda fickle going with Joyce Payne Saturday night and Bertha Lindsey Sunday evening.

Some people just can't keep away from my prying nose, can they? That's right, Bruce, I heard about you and Betty Ross having a hot time in the old town Saturday night.

I heard about you, too, Albert Craig. You and Sunny Brown from Dimmitt.

Melva Martin didn't have to try hard to have a good time with Duane Howard at the Soph Picnic.

Tommy Gooch and Cecelia Bosley were another couple running around at the Soph Picnic. Clara Sue Hardaway was having fun with Linden Sanders on that picnic, too.

What's this I hear about Billy Cleavinger telephoning Mrs. John Jennings, Sunday? June was with him, too.

I'd like to end my little tirade with a little message which I'm sure will be helpful. Here goes:

A thousand years ago today
A wilderness was here;
A man with powder in his gun
Went forth to hunt a deer,
But now times have changed—
Somewhat
Along a different plan;
A dear with powder on her nose
Goes forth to hunt a man.
Adios. . . .

Seventh, Eighth Graders Enter News-Globe Spelling Bee

Joe Watson, Jane Rose, and Bob Wilkinson are the present representatives of 7-1 in the spelling contest. Grades 8-1, 8-2 and 7-2 will each be eliminated to three members.

As a semi-final spelling round, all four divisions in Junior High will contest for a one-place winner, who will, in the last elimination, meet the winners of Junior High from the following schools: Happy, Umbarger, and West Texas.

The top speller of the Randall County contest will enter the final Spelling-Bee, April 15, in Amarillo, as sponsored by the Amarillo Daily.

Mrs. R. E. Ball and Mrs. J. E. Miller are sponsors of CHS spellers. "We are finding the work pleasant and exceedingly profitable, and we are hoping for a winner," they say.

Grade Notes

Mrs. Collins' first grade made free hand drawings last week. Harry Lisle visited school with his brother Howard last Thursday.

Mrs. C. F. Rogers surprised Mrs. Black's room with a birthday party for her daughter, Gayle.

J. D. Lundegreen was out of school due to flu.

Mrs. Davis' second grade is making a weather chart for the month of March. Each day a picture is drawn to depict the weather that day.

Mrs. Goodman's third grade room is starting a unit about the Dutch which will take in art, reading, and notebook work.

The class also has two daffodils which are now in bloom, which have grown from bulbs planted last Fall, and were used as subjects in their art work.

Max Wayne Johnson is back after being out with the chickenpox from Mrs. Usery's third grade.

Mrs. Brasher's fourth grade attended the Magician show last Thursday afternoon.

The class has a new Cardinel bird nest in their room.

The land of ancient farming—China, will be the unit studied for the next few weeks.

Mrs. Cousins' fourth grade had several visitors last week. They were Mesdames E. L. Cramner, W. B. Stone and W. E. Reed.

The freizes or murals depicting life along the Mediterranean countries has been finished.

Cut paper work of flowers made from construction paper placed on black paper was done by all of the students last week.

Arthur Harding is back after several days absence, and Mary Ann Shelnutt, Peggy Seymour and Leon Wesley are out due to illness.

Charles Brasher of Mrs. Jones' fifth grade, spent the week-end in Dallas.

Joyce White is home from the hospital after an appendectomy, but will not return to Mrs. Walsh's fifth grade for a few days.

Wanda Gail Pettit from Tulia has enrolled in Mrs. Walsh's fifth grade.

Jackie Lee Daniels has withdrawn from Mrs. Iverson's sixth grade.

Rotten Eggs Equal Chemistry Mixtures

If you were a visitor to Canyon High and just happened to be standing in the hall getting a drink or for some other unknown reason you would wonder why people come staggering out of the Chemistry room.

The reason should be well known by now. Some one is a wizard at mixing concoctions, which make students wish they hadn't been born with noses. Last Friday afternoon during World History class period, journalism students were wondering why the history students were pouring from the Chemistry room. Soon they were no longer wondering. They were wishing they also had a sanctuary where no smell could prevate.

If you have a desire to see people holding their heads out a window, you should have looked in the Chemistry room Monday morning. The students were making an experiment which would have made the hardiest skunk turn up his toes.

Maybe one of these days Mr. Potter will put up a sign saying, "You enter this room at your own risk and the management is not responsible for suffocation."

Sophomores Down Juniors 25-21

Basketball Intramurals are over in CHS.

The Juniors and the Sophomores tangled in the finals last Thursday with the Sophomores squeezing out by a 25-21 victory.

The Sophomore offense, sparked by Bob Busteed's 9 points and Billy Morton's 8 tallies proved too much for the Juniors. Robert McClendon and J. N. Pope racked up 3 markers each, and Richmond Payne added 2 points to the victors score. Harold Martin led the Juniors with 8 tallies.

Every year intramurals are played in basketball from the seventh to through the twelfth grades. Each team chooses a letterman from the varsity squad to act as their coach. The double elimination games are played during the noon hour with two members of the varsity squad officiating.

Campfield Poll

Since there are only 10 more weeks of school, the logical question is: Will you be glad when school is out?

Jo Parker: "I don't think I will."
Shirley Dixon: "No."
Jimmy Dodgin: "Yeah".
Shirley Priddy: "Sure".
Berkley SoRelle: "I won't, by George."
Travis Payne, "Of course I will."
Charles Mobley: "I'll miss my beloved teachers, but outside of that -you're mighty tootin!"
Richmond Payne: "Oh, you ain't a-kiddin."
Golden Currie: "Oh, I'd have to start working, I'd just as soon go to school and rest."
Bryce Slack: "Yeah Man!"
Emma Gene Zachry: "You're mighty right, I will be."
Chloe Ann Black: "I would if it wasn't my last year!" (Ed. Note: Who says its your last year?)
Bobbie Ford: "Sure".
Don Hickman: "I hesitate to say due to the incapability of my overworked widdle mind."
Jerre Inman: "It would sure be awful because we wouldn't get to read the Campfield Poll in the Eagles Tale."
Joanna Haines: "Yeah, because the teachers will be glad to get rid of me. I know, they told me so."
Troy Burrus: "Yeah, so I can have all the time to myself."
Bruce Winn: "Yeah, so I can have more time in Amarillo."
Mr. J. E. Miller: "Yes sir! I am always glad when school begins and always glad when school is out".

Tournament Is Well Attended

Seven teams attended the volleyball tournament in the Grade School gymnasium last Saturday. W. T. High, Dimmitt, Phillips, Amarillo, Friona, Pampa, and Canyon were all represented. Claude was unable to attend. Amarillo won first place in the finals Saturday night when they defeated the Dimmitt Bobbies, 15-6 and 15-11. W. T. High won the consolation trophy by defeating Pampa two sets, 15-11 and 16-14.

The Canyon Eaglettes reached the semi-finals but were beaten by Amarillo.

Members of the All-tournament team are: Dorothy Butler Duniven, Canyon; Beverly Beck, W. T. High; Cecelia McLaughlin, Pampa; Virginia Counts, Amarillo; Eloise Greathouse, Dimmitt; Rosemary During, Amarillo.

Girls receiving honorable mention are: Bobby Ford, Canyon; Wanda Robason, Friona; Dorothy Young, Phillips; Louise Davis, W. T. High; Clara Darling, Pampa; and Lornetia Odom, Dimmitt.

In the exhibition game between the eighth grade of Canyon High and the eighth grade of W. T. High preceding the final games Saturday night, Canyon's eighth graders won 15-3, 15-9, and 15-8.

The Eaglettes next tournament will be at Amarillo this week-end. Their first game is with Dumas at 10:45 Saturday morning.

Sue Ann Colwell, a former Canyon High student, visited school last Thursday afternoon.

Society Sue

Eenie, meenie, minee, mo---
Yes, mo and mo pretty clothes!

Joanna Haines' boots are first off on the broadcast this week. They are brightly colored in green, yellow, brown and tan. Nice, I'd say.

Oh, what is that blinding flash of color going down the halls? (Just Harry Campfield in his bright yellow T-shirt.)

Bobby Ford really looked devastating in her tan skirt and aqua sweater.

Those "Griffin Brothers" have been sporting some pastel plaid shirts, the past week. They were really very "fetching."

Antonia Hernandez is wearing a "Gibson Girl" blouse. It is white, trimmed in black ribbon and delicate lace.

Isn't Bryce Slack's pink and gray plaid shirt just . . . just . . ? Well, it is!

Some brown moccasins are the highlight of Melva Martin's wardrobe this week.

Philip Busteed wears a navy blue corduroy shirt. He says, "It's brand new too."

Harrell Slack's bright red plaid shirt made him the center of attraction in some of his classes last week.

Barbara McDougal has a darling new plaid dress.

Chloe Ann Black looked charming in a dark green sweater and light green skirt.

Nora Bell Ruthart drew a lot of attention in her off-the-shoulder, shepherd plaid, taffeta dress.

An adorable white blouse was worn by Jeanine Scott. It had a lace yolk with a drop-shoulder effect.

Mable Ann Graham was in the hospital Monday due to a smallpox vacination. She became sick during school Monday morning.

Mrs. T. E. Beard and her husband visited friends and went sight-seeing in Trinidad, Colorado over the week end.

Be sure to be at the Senior presentation of "Almost Eighteen," March 25.

Upchurch Discussed 1949 Farm Program at Rotary Tuesday

W. H. Upchurch discussed the farm program at the Rotary Club luncheon Tuesday. He discussed the farm price supports briefly rather than to try to cover the entire farm program.

Continuing farm prosperity can come only from high production per man and a well distributed income for the entire economy. America, with only 6% of the world's population, produces 50% of the entire industrial production of the world. Agriculture had kept pace with his production.

The American farmer is in favor of abundant production, provided the same rules are applied to his production as those made for controlled production in industry.

Mr. Upchurch presented charts which indicated the decline which would take place in net farm income if parity supports were reduced according to the present law. This would be a serious blow to farm economy, and to the nation as a whole if the farmer is deprived of his buying powers. He went into details to show what the Hope-Aiken law would do to prices in Randall county and other wheat producing sections of the Southwest.

Applied to bread, at $2.00 per bushel there is about 3c of wheat in a pound loaf. Farmers would prefer 11c bread and $1.00 wheat, IF other prices were reduced accordingly. This applies to the national debt, the price of shirts and shoes, as well as trucks and tractors.

If we continue to think in terms of the 1947-48 dollar, then we must think about how to keep the dollar of the 1951 farm production higher than 75% of parity. Wheat growers of America produced enough wheat to help win the war and enough to export nearly 500 million bushels last year to help hold humanity together while we try to reestablish peace. Now the question is, what penalty will the wheat growers have to pay for doing a big job better than it has ever been done before? Shall we start our customary depression by forcing wheat growers into bankruptcy? Or shall we manage to level off all prices at lower levels and try to keep our country solvent? If we must have lower farm prices, then let's have other prices come down. Let's have more than a 60-day supply of coal above ground, if we are to have a 1½ years supply of wheat above ground.

Let's have full capacity production of automobiles and all other things we need.

Visitors were: Capt. Fred Hart of Dayton, Ohio; Ben Koch of Umbarger; A. E. Wise, G. E. Wesley of Happy; Forrest Gruner, Raymond Battenhorst of Canyon; J. N. Hudson, E. Kancher, Forrest Barnes, Roy Pool, J. S. Triplett, Jr., Frank Storm, Jr., Allen Earley, Jr., F. A. Paul, all of Amarillo; Grady Rodgers and Foust Collier of Hereford; Warren Cottle of Clovis.

Week-End Warrior Comes Aboard

A signal officer aboard the U. S. S. Cabot waves in a Hellcat fighter plane piloted by a Naval Reserve officer, who flies only on weekends and during annual vacations. The airman is a member of Naval Reserve Escort Carrier Group 71 on a two-week active duty cruise to Havana, Cuba.

We are not sure, when we read some editorials, that even the editor knows what he is trying to say.

If hot air is what makes a dehydrator work, there ought to be a place for an outfit in every home.

WHERE?

Old Colored Lady: "Gib me a ticket foah Belinda."

The ticket agent looked through his stubs carefully. Scratched his head and went through them once more with no success. "Where is Belinda?"

Colored Lady: "Where is she? Why, she' settin' over dar on a seat."

The business outlook and businessmen's morale actually are much better than commentators make them out to be, according to President Stanley C. Allyn of the National Cash Register Co. The current readjustment hardly could lapse into the downward spiral of a major recession, he says; too many heavy industries are in too strong a position with order-backlogs for which they are just now getting supplies. They'll tend to sustain the rest of the economy.

Few experts now expect a renewal of the inflation-boom. Business policies, they feel, should be guided by developments such as these: Customers are refusing to buy except when prices are satisfactory and quality is proven; the downward trend toward a floor for farm prices (up 227% since 1939) and the upward trend of industrial prices will continue. (Since July 1, 1946, farm prices have risen only 22% while industrial prices were going up 45%.

Even if we should take 100% of the income of the people, we still would not have enough money to do all the desirable things.—Perry Murray, speaker-designate, Florida legislature.

BEAT HER TO IT

"Did the palmist tell you the truth about yourself?"

WHERE SILENCE FAILED

Professor Batt: "I can hardly say I like this tooth powder you purchased this morning; it has a very disagreeable taste.

His Wife: What next? That isn't tooth powder.

Professor Batt: Dear me; what is it then?

His Wife: Insect powder.

Where Democracy says: "Believe it or not," Communism says: "Believe it or else."—Dr. Homer P. Rainey, president, Stephens College.

Plenty of Meat Is in Prospect For Coming Year

U. S. News and World Report has published a survey of the anticipated meat supply—a subject which is of unusual interest now, due to the tragic livestock losses caused by the devastating weather which hit Western and Midwestern States.

Contrary to popular belief, this survey says that the storms have not substantially changed the long-range outlook for meat productions or prices. Losses were serious, but were small in relation to totals. Sheep, whose ability to survive in deep snow is less than that of cattle, were hardest hit. On the other hand, the storms had small effect on hog numbers.

To sum up, this year's meat supply will be about 145 pounds per person. That is approximately the same as last year, and 12 pounds above the 1939 level. However, there has been some change in the make-up of the total. In the near future, there will be a little less beef and lamb. But there will be more bacon, ham and pork. The quality of beef, incidentally, will be high.

The point of all this is that we need not fear a meat shortage because of weather or any other factor. The United States is blessed with a progressive agricultural economy. It has an efficient packing industry to distribute the meat to the consuming centers—and the charge for that vital service is only a fraction of a cent per pound for the cuts that grace our tables. These are typical factors which produce abundance in this country.

It is much better to be a horse than a human. The horse worked only eight hours a day, got medical attention, and its groom was punished heavily if there was an accident. The human worked 15 hours a day, got no medical attention, and nothing happened to his guard if there was an accident.—Vladimer Petrox, former Soviet slave leader.

The purpose of the Marshall Plan is to set us free from dependence of America. We have not the slightest intention of modifying our economic, social or political plan in order to qualify for aid.—Christopher P. Mayhew, British Foreign Undersecretary.

I'm through being fooled with in this case, and if you don't like it, you can lump it—I'm sick of this.—Federal Judge Harold R. Medina, to defense counsel for top Communists.

U. S. urged to revise propaganda in Germany to aid democracy.

For a long time the visitor to the great museum stood gazing at the Egyptian mummy swathed in bandages. "Tell me one thing," he ventured.

"What is it, sir?" asked the guide.

"Was it a motor or an airplane accident?"

Recent changes in the economy make these things probable: "A "normal" float of 3 million or more unemployed; an increase of employe efficiency because of greater reliance on jobs; recognition by some unions that marginal firms have hit rough going. But little evidence can be found as yet that man-hour productivity for manufacturing as a whole has increased during the past two years, according to the National Industrial Conference Board. Since 1939, the board's studies show, the over-all gain in production per hour of labor input has averaged less than 1% a year while labor cost per unit of production has averaged an increase of about 11% a year.

Smaller city businessmen in the Midwest farm area are working old-time devices to get farm families into their shopping districts—price trimming, community auctions, popularity contests. Farmers still have money but now most visit several towns for a close look at the price picture.

To step up sales, President Sidney Rosenblum of the National Association of Shirt and Pajama Manufacturers urges the industry to de-emphasize the all purpose white shirt and accent dramatic, fancy colored yarns. Shirtmakers' leaders agree that unless they can get together on effective promotional plans they will be badly hurt this year.

For the toy industry, 1949 prospects are brilliant. An exhibit of 100,000 playthings in 10 acres of space at the New Yorker, McAlpin and Breslin hotels in New York attracted huge attendance (1,500 registered buyers) and orders topped most optimistic forecasts. Special interest was shown in new, lower-priced products.

In the Middle East, truce is stranger than fiction.

Phone Directory Will be Expanded in New Issue in May

Canyon's next telephone directory will contain a "Yellow Page" section like those in metropolitan directories, according to John A. Cornell, Manager of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company here. Local firms will be classified in the "Yellow Pages" according to types of business and the products or services they offer. "Canyon has outgrown the present type of directory," Cornell said, "And the rapid telephone development here has prompted the introduction of the classified 'Yellow Page' section."

"Since 1941," the Manager said, "The number of telephones in Canyon has more than doubled. There are now more than 1,100 telephones in use here, and over 200 of these are business telephones.

"With so many listings in the directory, the classified section will make it easier for telephone users to find the business firms they want," Cornell continued. "When the new directory comes out in May, it won't be necessary to look through the regular alphabetical listings to find a business number. It simply will be a matter of turning to the business, Product or Service listed in the classified section and glance at the firms shown there."

The businessman becomes the lemon in the squeezer. The union demands an increase in wages, and, after it is given, the Government then decides whether the business man can raise prices.—Sen. Ralph E. Flanders (R.-Vt.), referring to the Administration's anti-inflation bill.

FACT FABLE

Once upon a time an American pilot was forced down on a small, distant island that had never before been touched by a white man. The first thing he noticed was the funny coloring of the natives—their bodies were striped like a barberpole, with black, red and green.

Of course the flyer didn't understand their language, but the first thing the native chief said to his tribe was: "He sure is a funny color, isn't he.

Moral: It's all in the viewpoint.

So far, in one respect, at least, we're doing all right. During the Presidential campaign we were told, "It's Wallace or War," but to date we have had neither.

Unless the GOP wins the 1950 Congressional elections, there may be nothing to fight about in 1952.—B. Carroll Reece, former chairman, Republican National Committee.

Every man has his price, but the best of men occasionally give themselves away.

I have always said there are at least a million men in the U. S. who could do a better job than I can. But I have the job and the duty.—President Truman.
